ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

- Because of the candid nature of this type of photography, the photographer uses only the available light, backgrounds, and surroundings of your event. There are no backdrops, props, or special lighting provided by the photographer.
- The focus of the photos will be capturing spontaneous, candid, and casual moments. If there are particular moments the host wishes to have photographed (an entrance/exit, speech, toast, award, surprise, etc.), details should be shared in advance. You are welcome to request casually posed small or large group photos.
- Terms and conditions regarding cancellations, rescheduling, and other logistical concerns are part of the contract provided upon scheduling.
